COAL MINERS

To the Number of 900 Go on Strike in Southern West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, Mar. 25.—Because the company refused to pay the price demanded by the men for loading slate, 900 miners at Boomer, have refused to go to work. It was at Boomer that considerable trouble was experienced last summer, when it was necessary to send an army of deputy sheriffs to the scene to quell the riot.

District President Ben Davis left for Boomer this morning, and hopes to prevent any serious trouble. At night, however, the Boomer Coal & Coke Company's store was broken into and robbed of clothing.
